GRIZZLIES CAPTURE STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Victory Over Mines Cinches Title for the State University.

The State University basket ball team last night defeated the Montana School of Mines by a score of 31 to 14 on the Butte floor. The game was rough from the start. This victory over the Miners on their own floor relieves the Grizzlies of any doubt as to the intercollegiate basket ball championship of this state.

Montana took the lead early in the first half and held it throughout the game. McDonnell's accuracy in attempts at the basket during the first half gave the Grizzlies a 12-9 lead at the end of that period. In the second half the Montana team came back with 19 points to their opponent's five.

This is the second defeat for the Miners at the hands of the Grizzlies, the first coming last month on the State University floor by a 24-14 score. Having successfully eliminated the Miners in the race for the state flag the Grizzlies now have clear sailing.

The lineups:

Montana	Mines
McDonnell	Walsh
Porter	Guilo
Ahern	Landwehr
Sullivan	Havey
Baird	Ladic
Right Forward

UNIVERSITY GIRLS TO DEBATE WESLEYAN

The first girls' debating team of the University left last night for Helena, where it will engage the Montana Wesleyan College in a forensic battle on the question of "Union Shops." The team is composed of Lois James, Olive McKay and Mary Blaisdell, and is chaperoned by Mrs. H. G. Merriam on the trip.

The girls have done much preliminary work under the direction of Professor E. L. Freeman, and they are well prepared to give the Wesleyans a hard contest. The contest will be a decision affair.

Pledges of Theta Sigma Phi, women's national journalism fraternity, will publish Tuesday's issue of The Kaimin. The paper will be modeled after the Boston Transcript and will not be a razz sheet, but the editor has announced that there will be plenty of University scandal.

SARAH TRUAX TO READ PLAY AT HIGH SCHOOL

Miss Sarah Truax, the star of "The Garden of Allah" and of "The Two Orphans," will read the comedy, "Enter Madame," at the high school auditorium Monday evening, at 8:15. The reading Monday night will be the third of a series of lectures and readings by well-known American authors and actors, which is being presented by the University in conjunction with the Missoula County high school. "Enter Madame," written by Guilda Varesi, gives familiar glimpses of an opera star at home and behind the scenes. The comedy played in New York for a year and a half and is now playing in Philadelphia and in London. "Enter Madame" won the Pulitzer prize in 1920. This prize is given yearly to the best play of the season. The play was also chosen as one of the ten best plays of the 1921 season.

Monday's program will be Miss Truax' only appearance in Missoula as a reader. According to Alexander Dean, who is in charge, "Enter Madame" is a "lively comedy of scenes behind the stage, and a vivacious and true picture of the private life of some of our great artists."

AMERICAN LEGION WILL STAGE "A FULL HOUSE"

Will Appear in Deer Lodge February 25, and Liberty Theater March 4.

The comedy, "A Full House," which will be staged by Post 27 of the American Legion of Missoula, under the direction of Alexander Dean, director of dramatics at the University, will be presented in Deer Lodge at both afternoon and evening performances Saturday, February 25.

Professor Walter L. Pope, of the law school, in the part of George Howe, leading male character, and Doris Gally, in the leading comedy role of Sister Susie of Sioux City, will appear in the cast. Miss Lucile Chase, assistant director of Craig hall, will play the part of Mrs. Pembroke, and Lloyd Lockwood, Frances Colvin, Ruth Keith and Dorothy Risley, all former students at the University, are cast in the production.

The play will be put on at the Liberty, March 4.

TOURNAMENT GAMES START WITH A BANG

All Dope Upset in Opening Games; Many Players Jerked for Fouls.

The first mining district tournament started off with a bang here yesterday afternoon at the high school gymnasium with Missoula, Mt. St. Charles, Philipsburg, Dillon and Anaconda winning the first games of the contest.

This is the first time that the mining district tournament has been held in the Garden City and the games are exciting more interest than was at first anticipated, both among the students and the townspeople.

Although cleaner playing would have been admirable among the ten competing teams, everything that could be asked in the line of hair raisers in basketball was offered. The play was rough from start to finish and during one of the games the referee called 14 personal fouls.

One of the closest games was that between Mt. St. Charles and Deer Lodge. The latter team held the lead throughout the entire game, but the last few minutes of play when the St. Charles bunch got busy and rang in several scores. They won the game by a score of 32 to 29.

The lineup and summary:

Missoula Defeats Butte.

Forging ahead after the first ten minutes of play, Missoula high won an easy victory over the Butte Central team. The final score was 43 to 16.

For the first few minutes the Missoula aggregation was caught in a flurry of long shots netted by Butte Central, but soon tightened and put up a defense that was unbreakable and established an offense that was clock-like in its regularity.

Illman's heavy shooting in the first half and Kelly's excellent tossing in the second period accounted for most of Missoula's points. The latter player was credited with 21 points alone.

FRONTIER COMES OUT FIRST WEEK IN MARCH

The material for the next issue of The Frontier is now on the press and the magazine will be out about the first week in March. According to Professor H. G. Merriam, much material was turned in and the main feature of the magazine for this time will be a one-act play written by a student on the campus.

The Frontier is put out by the class in creative writing in English. Most of the material was contributed by that class, though many of the stories and verse selected for the paper were written for other classes. It is planned to make The Frontier thoroughly representative of the literary talent in the University.

ESSAY CONTEST FOR BENNETT PRIZE OPENS

Contestants Have Choice of Three Subjects; Papers Must Be in By May 8.

The rules governing the Bennett essay contest for 1922 were announced today by Professor Paul C. Phillips. Contestants for this year will have a choice of three subjects from which to write. These are as follows:

- 1—The Foreign Policy of President Harding.
- 2—The Consolidation of City and County Governments.
- 3—The Recognition of the Russian Soviet Government by the United States.

The contest closes May 8, and copies of the competing essays should be in the hands of the history department by that date. Some of the other important regulations governing the contest are: "The essay should not contain more than 2,500 words. To receive consideration it must be written in good English and contain bibliography and references to authorities used. The name of the author must not appear on the manuscript. Only undergraduates of the University are eligible to compete."

The prize for the Bennett essay contest is the interest accruing yearly on a fund of $500, donated by William Jennings Bryan to the University. The amount to be given away this year is $25. Last year the prize was won by Lucille Jameson, who wrote on "Reform of County Government in Montana."

SULLIVAN IS MADE ABER DAY MANAGER

Appointment Made by Central Board; Routine Business Transacted.

Steve Sullivan was made chairman of Aber day at the regular meeting of the central board held yesterday afternoon. The annual campus clean-up day, named after the college's most revered professor, will be held early in the spring quarter, at a date to be set later. Sullivan was given the power to select whomever he chose to help him plan the work for the day.

Aber day is a tradition at the University of Montana similar to campus days in other colleges, during which the students work in cleaning up the campus. At noon the co-eds serve lunch and the work is continued during the afternoon. The members of the "M" club act as police, and at noon court is held, during which time those who didn't work well are tried and sentenced.

Varsity Vodvil Report.

William Hughes made his report to the central board on the result of Varsity Vodvil, the statement showing a surplus of nearly $400 above expenses. Oakley Coffee also made a report on A. S. U. M. finances, which follows:

AGGIE DEBATE TEAM DEFEATS UNIVERSITY

The University debate team, now touring the state, suffered a defeat at the hands of the Aggies in Big Timber by a decision of two to one. On the preceding night the Varsity debaters came out on top by the same margin. They debated in Anaconda last night in a no-decision affair. From there they will go to Butte, then to Deer Lodge, which is the last stop on the trip.

According to Payne Templeton, a student of the University back in the days of '16, and now principal of an eastern Montana high school, the debate at Big Timber was one of the most interesting that he has ever heard. The audience was enthusiastic and applauded both sides frequently. He states that although he felt remorse at seeing his Alma Mater go down to defeat, he nevertheless felt the State University had a splendid team. He said that the rebuttal of William Jameson was one of the best he had ever heard.

ATTEND CONVOCATION.

Convocation is held ostensibly to bring to the students an hour of entertainment or instruction each week. Its real purpose, however, is not to provide lecturers, singers, or poets, but to keep alive that spirit of unity which is indispensable to the making of a successful school, that spirit of the whole which must transcend in importance all group and organization loyalty existing.

Convocation programs this year have been carefully planned with this fundamental principle in mind and a sincere attempt has been made to introduce such variety of entertainment and instruction as will appeal to the interest of every student. We have only to recall the names of some of those who have appeared at the weekly assemblies to realize that efforts to present programs with a majority appeal have not been unsuccessful.

During the year we have heard, among others, an eminent sociologist and economist, in the person of Dr. Edward T. Devine, Maurice Browne and Ellen Van Volkenburg, actors of country-wide repute; the poets, Vachel Lindsay and John G. Neihardt; the writer, Alton B. Shaw. Prominent members of the faculty have spent time and energy in the preparation of entertainment features which, we believe, have been delightful and informative as well.

As students we are pleased to be amused and instructed by men and women possessed of recognized ability and the power to contribute something of real value to us. As members of the State University, however, our interest must be fundamentally deeper and more significant, involving a desire to keep alive the get-together spirit of the student body. Certainly, it should be of a nature to insure a good attendance at weekly convocations.

TO AVOID FAILURE.

You are extremely interested in those who have made a success of life, for they have attained what you want. You study them, try to figure out how they did it, hoping to get a profitable idea for yourself. A good system for getting ahead.

But a psychologist, in analyzing strength, doesn't stop with a study of Sandow. He takes the other extreme also, and studies the defects that keep the weak from becoming strong.

In your way, you are a psychologist, though you may call a psychological study "getting his number."

So, then, in studying success do not overlook the failures. Learn what made them fail and you know what to avoid.

There is nothing mysterious about the degree of prosperity certain individuals enjoy during their college career. Prosperity that has to do with grade points and knowledge that is really absorbed. A study of the ups

Hard work and perseverance are two things necessary in success whether it be in college or in business. When you find yourself slacking up and the grades are not much to brag about just remember.

WELCOME.

The Kaimin speaking for the State University wishes to invite the various high school teams competing in the mining district tournament to visit the State University campus at any time. We want you to feel that the various organizations of the campus are there for the specific purpose of helping you get acquainted with the institution. We want you to call on any individual student of the school for any information concerning the University. In the course of your visit in Missoula we hope to have an opportunity of getting acquainted. We want to demonstrate to you that upon finishing your scholastic studies, you are making a mistake not to enter some branch of the University of Montana.

SORORTIES ABOLISH CUSTOMS IN ORDER TO CORRAL GRADES

There was a time when sorority houses were the source of much pleasure to the Greek sisters on the campus. Such a thing as a study hour was a thing unheard of. Of course a few of the senior sisters, who realized that the burdens of the fraternity were solely upon them, would always have a regular study hour at night, as well as all afternoon. You know, just to show the pledges that they really were somebody. That it was the seniors who were the backbone of the fraternity, and that they should be given all due reverence because of that fact.

When school opened in the fall of 1921 things seemed different. No one cared much about studying. Just a few of the same sisters who always carry all the responsibility upon their overburdened shoulders. Every night those who craved knowledge had to collect all their books and plod to the library in order to seek peace and quiet. The sisters at home who had spent a whole day in school certainly could not be bothered being quiet any longer, and so had a circus putting the player piano rolls on backwards and listening to the weird music, singing The Sheik according to all the rules of grand opera, and shooting craps.

This went on for some time and then the dean became wise and called a mass meeting, one of the kind of meetings where a few of the prominent students express ideas they really don't believe themselves, and in the end manage to convince everybody else that they know what they're talking about. Well, at this mass meeting these few privileged individuals convinced the women of the University that if they all pitched in and studied they'd manage to take the scholarship cup away from the Alpha Phi.

So—quiet hours were installed in all of the chapter houses. At 7:30 the sisters are all gathered into the dining room, and one of the senior sisters takes roll call and sees that no one has escaped. Between 7:30 and 9:30 it is so quiet that even a plank could be heard if it were dropped on the floor. Then as soon as study hour is over they all get to feeling hilarious again, only to discover some dear sister rushing at them saying, "This is quiet hour."

It sure isn't any joke any more, but then, think of the grade points that will be awarded at the end of the quarter.

In the scented southern breeze,
That blows a dusky beauty's dress
About her dimpled knees.
Her dress is made of stringy grass,
Or a tumble weed or two,
It lisps and rustles in the wind
As grass and weeds must do.
There's amorous oggling in her gaze,
Her pouting lips entreat.
Her arms outstretching lure me on
And my heart—it skips a beat.
It's a most entrancing picture
And I know you wish and sigh,
But her papa was a cannibal
And the reformers passed her by.

UNIVERSITY Y. W. C. A. TO BEGIN CLUB PROGRAM

Eight Weeks' Course for Leaders to Be Given Under Direction of Secretary.

The University Y. W. C. A. plans to begin an eight weeks' club program or training course for leaders, under the direction of Miss Mary McGonagle, student secretary. The extension of such a course first started by the Y. W. C. A., has become a national movement in this country. Through it young women learn how to organize clubs of younger girls, especially in the rural and small town communities, and receive valuable training in leadership.

Miss McGonagle states that the course has been tried in many of the larger colleges and has met with heartiest approval. There are eight lessons given, each one a model for the actual meetings of such a club. Some suggested topics are: Recreation and story telling, nature study, campcraft, demonstration of first aid, arts and crafts, dress, canning and how younger girls can help in rural community problems. Experts in the various lines will be invited to speak and demonstrate at these meetings, so it will be possible for all attending to receive the very best information on the various subjects.

The association has not definitely decided when to begin the courses. In order to ascertain the most convenient time, all girls interested are invited to meet in Natural Science auditorium next Tuesday at 5 o'clock to discuss the organization and arrange the time. Every University woman will be welcome at any of the meetings, but it will be best to attend every one.

New Bookcases for Various Departments

A number of sectional bookcases have been received by the University and 100 have been distributed among the various departments.

Out of the number, 20 were sent to the botany department, five to the president's office, five to the business administration school, 15 to the mathematics department, five to psychology, 10 to geology, 15 to history, five to fine arts, 10 to biology and 10 to English.

Mrs. A. F. LeClaire, University nurse, returned to Missoula Sunday, after a ten-day trip to Portland, Oregon. Mrs. LeClaire stated that there were a great many cases of flu in Portland with several deaths.

At present there are a number of University students suffering from mild colds but not a case of flu has been reported on the campus.

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY IS PLANNED FOR NEW HAVEN

At a mid-winter convention of the Connecticut Pharmaceutical association held at New Haven, Connecticut, January 9, a campaign was started to raise $100,000 to establish a college of pharmacy there. It is the hope of the association that when this college of pharmacy has been established for a few years the University of Yale will absorb it.

Pennsylvania State College and Montana State College will debate in Bozeman April 12. The Montana institution will also meet Michigan Agricultural College in debate in April.

Norwich University, Northfield, Vermont, recently received $300,000, the bequest of Brigadier General Rush C. Hawkins, a native of Pomfret, Vermont.

U HEALTH SERVICE HITS STORE SALES OF PATENT MEDICINE

Competition is the death of trade. This paradox has been formulated on the basis of a statement given out yesterday by Arthur Redding, manager of the student store, concerning his sale of patent medicine. "Since the installation of the Student Health service," Mr. Redding said, "our medicine sales dropped quickly to zero and have stayed there. People won't pay money for medicine when they can get it for nothing."

Upon examining the books it was found that in previous years as much as three bottles of cough medicine have been sold in a single quarter. Thus far this school year, but one bottle of the syrup has been purchased, and that was for a pet dog which could not take advantage of the University Health service. Pills and salves show a similar slump in sales.

The one exception is cough drops. Cough drop sales are numerous. A student who got a D in psychology last quarter explains that these sales are made to students of Scotch descent, who would like candy, but fool their consciences by making them believe that it isn't candy, but cough medicine.

"As long as Mrs. LeClaire continues her policy of dumping medicine on the market at no cost to the students," Redding said, "the campus store cannot try to compete."

Chief Justice Brantly To Speak to Students

Chief Justice Theodore Brantly of the Montana supreme court, has accepted an invitation to address the University law school association and other members of the student body, March 2. He will deliver two speeches one in the afternoon and the other that evening, in the auditorium of Main hall. His talk will be a general discussion of Montana courts and their jurisdiction. Professor Colvin, president of the University Club of Missoula, has signified his intention of asking him to address that organization while here.

"PYRAMUS AND THESBE" WILL BE PRESENTED

Put On by Six Boys of the Missoula High School.

"Pyramus and Thesbe," a cutting from Shakespeare's play, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," will be presented at convocation Tuesday, February 28, by six boys of the junior class of Missoula County high school under the direction of Miss Hortense Moore, instructor in dramatics.

The play was successfully staged at the high school last Tuesday at the regular student convocation and as a burlesque, received much applause. Its appearance here will be the first time that members of the high school have been asked to put on a performance of any kind at the University.

Dr. Randall Presents Journals to University

Dr. J. G. Randall of Missoula has presented the University with 73 volumes of medical and literary journals. The gift includes 29 volumes of the Journal of the American Medical Association, covering the period of 1905 to 1919, inclusive; 14 volumes of the Medical Record, period of 1899 to 1906, inclusive; 12 volumes of the Literary Digest, period of 1901 to 1906, inclusive; 3 volumes of the Journal of Laboratory and Clinical Medicine; 7 volumes of Surgery, Gynecology and Obstetrics, and 8 volumes of miscellaneous medical books.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC RECITAL TUESDAY ATTENDED BY MANY

A large audience heard the school of music's recital at the high school auditorium last Tuesday evening. This was the sixth of the ten free community programs which the University is conducting for the students of both the University and high school, and the people of Missoula. Several instrumental and vocal numbers were on the program.

"THE PRAIRIE STAR" SENT FOR EXCHANGE

"The Prairie Star," a paper put out by the students of the Rapelje high school in Stillwater county, is one of the unique high school papers that comes to The Kaimin office for exchange. It is unique in its make up in that it is published by a mimeograph and has a mimeographed cartoon on the front page, as well as sketches throughout its pages. It covers eight pages of copy and represents a lot of work, considering that the total enrollment of the school is under 25 pupils.

It is managed and published by a regular staff and to its members falls the responsibility of getting the paper out once every month. It is divided into departments under such headings as Junior Notes, Dramatics, Debate, Literary Column and the inevitable column of wit. One page is devoted to athletics and another to stories and poetry, contributions of members of the student body.

Rapelje is a little town of about 300 people. It is located at the end of a branch line of the Northern Pacific that runs into Stillwater county.

WORK IS STARTED ON NEW BUILDINGS

Warm Weather Permits Finishing Touches on Foundations; First Floor Slabs Being Laid.

With the let-up in cold weather, work on the foundations, including the first floor slab of the two residence halls and the library, is being resumed and the final touches are being put on the footings for the gymnasium. Very little work remains to be done on the foundation of the library, but considerable must be done to complete the foundations for the residence halls. As yet no work has been done on the first floor slab of either of these buildings. It is believed, however, that if the weather continues to moderate, foundations for all three of these buildings will be completed by the first of the month.

Construction of the forestry building will begin about March 1. The foundation for this building has been completed for some time. The foundation contract did not call for the construction of the first floor slab.

Contractors are rushing orders for material so that, with the advent of spring, work can be commenced without delay. The Milwaukee and Northern Pacific railroads will both build spurs to facilitate unloading of equipment. These spurs will probably be built near the Van Buren street bridge. In addition the Northern Pacific will install unloading apparatus.

The building of these spurs is being done entirely upon the initiative of the railroads and has nothing to do with the construction of a spur for unloading coal which specifications for the heating plant require.

ART STUDENTS TO HEAR BUCKMILLER

George Buckmiller, advertising manager of the Donohue store, will lecture to the students of the art department next Tuesday evening in the studio. Mr. Buckmiller will talk on "Show Cards, Window Decoration and Advertising." He has been with the store for several years and during that time has taken many prizes in contests on his ability to trim windows. All students of the business administration and journalism schools have been asked to hear this lecture, as it will be of interest to them.

This talk will be under the auspices of the art students and will start at 8 o'clock.

Lady Luck Runs, Heat Stops, Everyone Sick

It looks as if Lady Luck had certainly forgotten the S. P. E.'s this week for not only did their cook give up the stove and get sick, and the furnace work over-time and go on a strike, but seven sympathetic brothers contracted "colds in the head." Fearing that the rest of the household would do likewise, Mrs. LeClaire smuggled the seven sniffing S. P. E.'s to the hospital where they will stay until the cook, the furnace and themselves recover.

DR. UNDERWOOD RETURNS FROM TAXPAYERS' MEETING

Dr. J. H. Underwood, head of the department of sociology and economics at the University, returned to Missoula after attending the meeting at Billings for the purpose of discussing the tax situation in this state.

At the regular meeting of the class in social problems yesterday, Dr. Underwood told some of the things accomplished by the convention at Billings.

Jes' Foolin' Aroun'

We noticed one of those monstrous football M men walking around the campus the other day in the company of a frail little co-ed.

And in his big awkward way he was (at least we thought so) trying to make love to her.

He was slapping her gently and teasing her in various other ways, when finally she picked up a bit of light snow and

Popped him on the snoot.

How that man did howl! We thought that a TNT cartridge was smuggled in that bit of snow, judging from the rumpus he put up. He yelled a bit and then started complaining to the little lady about how rough she was.

We snickered, because we remembered how that same big man had performed on the gridiron last fall.

At that time he smashed through the line knocking other guys cuckoo, and giggled. He tore up lots of sinews and crushed all kinds of skulls just for the fun of it.

He would have tackled the North Coast Limited if the quarterback had called that particular play.

And he got his M.

Well, as Patrick Henry would have said:

"Anthony had his Cleopatra,

Louis the fifteenth his Du Barry,

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Class Representatives Speak on Opportunities for Department Graduates.

At a meeting of the Home Economics club last night, speeches were given by the members from each of the classes represented in the club.

Elizabeth Wickes of the senior class, gave a talk on the big sister movement, which is being made in this country. Thelma Wuest, '23, gave an impromptu speech on the history of women. A talk was to have been given by Harriet Taylor, who was unable to attend the meeting on account of the storm, so Miss Wuest was asked to fill the vacancy left by the former.

"Rural Living" was the title of the topic covered by Francis McKinnon of the sophomore class. Miss McKinnon spoke of the opportunities open to the home economics graduates in helping to improve the living standards in the rural districts of the country. Isabelle Sutherland of the Freshman class read a paper entitled, "Island of Yap."

The meeting was attended by 21 members regardless of the blizzard-like condition of the weather Wednesday evening.

William Dolan and Furness Van Iderstine were taken to the St. Patrick's hospital yesterday afternoon suffering from symptoms of pneumonia.

Wayne Limberg, a freshman in the school of journalism, has withdrawn from the University and has gone to his home in Plymouth, Wisconsin, where he expects to work on a newspaper.

Disabled Veteran in Denver Hospital Wants Campus News

Lonesome for his friends and his Alma Mater, is James B. Muri, disabled veteran of the World war, and former student of the University, now a patient in a sanitarium at Denver, Colorado.

"Red," as he was known to his fellow students, was among the first to join the colors after war had been declared. Enlisting in the Montana National Guard, April, 1917, he was sent abroad with the Fifty-second division in the fall of that same year. Wounded and gassed, he was returned December, 1919, since when he has been at various military hospitals.

His exact whereabouts were not known until the arrival, last week, of a letter from the Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion at Denver, Colorado, to the Iota Nu fraternity, of which he was a member, stating that Muri was a patient at Oake's Home near there, and was desirous of obtaining old copies of the Sentinel and current issues of The Kaimin.

Muri was a student here in the school years of 1915-16 and 1916-17. His home is in Forsyth.

LOCAL UNIT STARTS INDOOR RIFLE SHOOT

The annual indoor Rifle Shoot of the R. O. T. C. units of the Ninth Corps Area, started yesterday. Each unit shoots in its own gallery and the targets are sent in to the corps area headquarters where they are judged. The winners are announced from there.

Francis Peterson is the only man on the Montana team who has completed his shooting. His score was 75 out of 100. Nine other cadets have started their shooting and will finish today. Of the incomplete records, Omar White is ahead so far, with a score of 85 out of 100.

The shooting is done from the prone, kneeling, sitting and standing positions. It is supervised by Captain C. M. Walton and Sergeant Alexander Brown.

EPISCOPAL CLUB TO GIVE DANCE AT PARISH HOUSE

A dance will be given Saturday night at the Parish house by the Episcopal club. A short program will be given during the evening.

The dancing will start about 8:15. The program will be given about an hour later, and the dancing will be resumed. Ardys Cuttall, Lynde Catlin and Magnhild Weberg will give vocal solos. Kathleen Gibson and Herbert Inch will render several selections on the piano. Agnes Boyd will give a solo dance. The University quartet will sing several popular songs.

SUMMER SESSION OF THE LAW SCHOOL IS ASSURED

A summer session of the law school is assured after the announcement by more than 30 students, of their intentions to pursue their studies during the summer months, Dean Leaphart stated yesterday afternoon. Two courses in insurance will be given in addition to the regular courses listed on the schedule.

Jessie Bierman, who graduated from the University of Montana last June, is also attending the University of Chicago this year.

The advisory board of the Y. W. C. A. met with Emeline Whitcomb, professor of home economics, Thursday afternoon.

MAIL ORDERS NOW TAKEN CARE OF BY CAMPUS STORE

The campus store has established a mail order business in addition to its local trade. The store now receives orders from all parts of the state at the rate of one or two a day. tournament when they clashed with the Butte team yesterday afternoon and defeated the Purple and White by a 22 to 15 score.

The Smith brothers were easily the stars for the Granite county team. Effective guarding was responsible for the holding of the Butte clan. The game was clean throughout and was easily judged the most interesting of the contests thus far. Walsh, the sensational Butte forward, who was counted as a sure point-getter, was so successfully guarded throughout the game that he did not score a goal from the field. Without him his teammates seemed to be at loss as to just what to do.

Dillon Makes High Score.

Again a Smith, but Andy this time, showed up in great form in the Dillon-Boulder game. Dillon winning, 44 to 18.

During the first half Smith was tossing a basket every time he got his hands on the ball, which was often. He made a total of seven goals and at the end of the first half Dillon was leading with 33 points to Boulder's 10. During the second half Smith was relieved and the game seemed to die with few goals and little team passing.

Anaconda, 37; Helena, 14.

Anaconda came out the easy victors in their game with Helena, defeating the capital city squad by a 37 to 14 score, proving that their defeat of Butte last week was not to be taken as a miracle.

McDonald was easily the star of the game, playing the entire floor, and scoring 27 points, 19 of which were from free throws out of 31 attempts.

The Anaconda forwards were speedy and worked together so nicely that the Helena guards had a bare chance to find them, to say nothing of guarding them.

Grizzlies to Close Basketball Year Tuesday Evening

The present basketball season will close for the State University with the game Tuesday night with Mt. St. Charles. One of the best quintets of Grizzlies the institution has supported since it was established will then break up.

Two of Montana's best men finish their days in Grizzly harness with the closing of this season. Captain "Ronny" Ahern and "Steve" Sullivan have each served full time on the Grizzly lineup and have won three basketball stripes for as many years' service. Two large holes will be left by their vacancy when training starts in 1923.

However, Montana will retain three of her regular lineup. Two of the men, McDonnell, left forward, and Badgley, right forward, are eligible for two more years of playing. Baird, right guard, will be eligible next year. As far as known all three intend to return to school next year.

Prospects Good for Next Year.

Although it will be hard to fill the vacancies left by the loss of Sullivan and Ahern, several strong contenders will be in the field for their positions. Tanner, who has substituted for Sullivan at times this year, has shown up well and makes a strong bid for a place on the regular lineup next year. There has also been a good showing on the present freshman lineup at the guards.

Center will be difficult to fill. Straw, one of this year's substitutes, has been placed at center twice this year. Both Porter and Harvey have ably substituted at the forward positions.

With the new gym and the new recruits from the freshmen of this year Montana will develop a strong quintet for the season in 1923, according to those connected with University athletics. The retaining of McDonnell, Badgley and Baird will strengthen the possibilities.

This morning at 10 o'clock the losers of yesterday's afternoon games played, and were followed on the floor by the winners in the same contest.

It is likely that three of the winners from the Mining district tournament will be invited to compete in the state championship games at Bozeman, March 8 to 11. In the past, four teams from this district have been invited, but this year the state has been divided into nine sections instead of eight, and the number of teams from here will be reduced one.

Winners Picked Saturday.

The two teams which will compete in the final game for the championship Saturday night, are both assured of making the trip to the Gallatin county blue ribbon scrap, while the winner of game No. 15 the same evening to decide third and fourth places, will also attend.

The complete program of the games: Friday morning at 10 o'clock—Two games.

Friday afternoon at 2:30—Two games.

Friday evening at 6:30—Three games.

Saturday morning at 10—Temptoraneous speaking contest.

Saturday afternoon at 2:30—Two games.

Saturday evening at 7:30—Two games.

STATE COLLEGE TO HAVE TRACK TEAM THIS YEAR

Montana State College will have a track team this season, according to the latest reports from the Associated Press correspondent at Bozeman.

The announcement was made by the Athletic board in contradiction to a statement made previously that the State College athletes would not train for track this year. The first report came as the result of an announcement that the athletic field would be torn up to allow for the construction of a new building under the present building program.

That the State College will have a track team in 1922 will come as welcome news here, as the present schedule of the University includes a meet with the Aggies.

Only two track meets have been scheduled by the Aggies, one with the University and one with Montana Wesleyan.

Howard J. Doggett, a freshman in the University, is ill at St. Patrick's hospital. His father and mother are here from Townsend to be with him until he is out of danger. Latest information stated that Doggett was improving slightly.

CO-ED BASEBALL GAMES WILL START HERE SOON

The co-ed baseball tournament, which has always aroused great enthusiasm among the organizations upon the campus, will be held as soon as weather permits.

These games are played on Dornblaser field, a game being held on each corner of the field at the same time. Miss Baxter and girls in the coaching class, umpire the games.

Last year a three-year silver loving cup was awarded to Alpha Phi, who succeeded in playing through the tournament without a defeat. In order to win the cup permanently, Alpha Phi must win the tournaments for two more years.

FOOTBALL ORDERS HAVE BEEN PLACED FOR FALL

Orders for football goods for next fall have been placed. Delivery will be made August 15.

Material sufficient with that on hand to equip 65 men is ordered each year. It is estimated that about 30 men will be out for the varsity squad with a similar number out for the freshman squad.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON CHAPTER BUYS HOME

The local chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon has purchased the D. J. Donohue home on Gerald avenue.

The fraternity will move from their present home at 418 Daly avenue into their new home September 15, after they have made some changes and improvements. The house has 14 rooms and will accommodate about 35 men. The local chapter owns six lots on Gerald avenue, and they are planning to build a permanent home there at some future time.

The local fraternity, which in 1917 was installed as Sigma Phi Epsilon, was organized in 1917.

LEAD FLIES IN ALL DIRECTIONS EXCEPT THE DESIRED ONE

(By Kaimin's War Correspondent.)

Enemies of this, our United States, had better look out. Every day there are bold youths at the shooting gallery at Marcus Cook hall, practicing with fowling pieces. Sergeants are busy drilling into the potential warriors the rudiments of successful shooting.

Three delinquents come into the military department to make up cuts. The captain orders them to target practice and places a sergeant in charge.

"First," says the sergeant, "we'll practice prone shooting."

The big boy with the Big Ben face breaks in "Fraid can't do that, Serg. You see, I'm not prone to shoot."

With great fortitude the sergeant maintains silence. The members of the R. O. T. C. each take a rifle as if it were a piece of unusually offensive Gorgonzola. "Lie down with the body forming an angle to the right at the waist line."

"To the right, I said," the brave sergeant bawls.

"I shoot from my southern side," the funny lad says, squirming on his ventral surface. The sergeant bites his tobacco painfully.

Then the Scenery Suffers.

"All ready, you can begin shooting now," he says. They all shoot. One breaks a light globe, the other puts a dent in the furnace, and only the bullet from the third boy's gun knows where it went.

"That was my fault, men," the sergeant says, "I should have told you we would practice shooting at that black and white target first. Only seniors in the department are allowed to shoot at anything else. However, if you show a great deal of improvement I will let you shoot at random some day. All ready."

"Hurrah," shouts the exponent of military tactics. "One of you hit the target in the extreme right-hand corner. Your time is up."

Enemies of this, our United States, had better look out.

P. E. MAJORS REFEREE MANY BITTER ROOT VALLEY GAMES

Majors in the physical education department, who are enrolled in the coaching class, have refereed co-ed basketball games in the Bitter Root valley, as well as a few games in Missoula, during the last quarter.

Lillian Christensen has been chosen to referee the inter-valley tournament. Grace Buford, Ruth James and Elsie Thompson have refereed games at Hamilton, Florence, Stevensville, Corvallis and Victor.

FORESTERS HEAR TALKS BY PROMINENT SPEAKERS

Others on Program; Protection of Forests Subject of O'Brien's Talk.

Several prominent men in the forest service and in capacities relative to that service have given special lectures to the students in the forestry school and the short course ranger students. This series of lectures will continue during the week.

R. B. Adams, telephone engineer for the Department of Agriculture of the Rocky Mountain district, gave three lectures to the forestry improvements class, February 14, 16 and 21. The subject for his talks was "Telephone Construction and Maintenance."

P. J. O'Brien, law enforcement officer of the forest service, lectured Tuesday and Thursday, and will give another talk next Tuesday on "The Enforcement of Federal and State Laws Affecting the National Forest Service."

Leon C. Hunt, grazing investigator of District No. 1, of the forest service, will give a series of lectures and field classes to the students registered in the ranger short course.

The theme of his talks will be the handling of national forests and rangers.

Dean Claire Arnett, of the State Agricultural College, has just finished three lectures and conferences with the forestry students on the livestock industry.

CAFETERIA SERVES HOME-MADE CANDY

Chocolate fudge, maple nut fudge, pineapple sea-foam and divinity—the most tempting home-made candy ever—and six big, luscious pieces all for a dime, at the Simpkins hall cafeteria! The candy was an innovation that appeared on the dessert counter Saturday night for the first time, to tempt the already husky appetites of the hundred and fifty students who take their meals at the cafeteria, and it added one more to the many homelike touches that make that cafeteria different from the majority of cafeterias. The candy is so popular, with the hungry students, that it is difficult to make the supply equal the demand, and in all probability its sale will continue, at least for a short.

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF LAW TO BE GIVEN AS FIRST PRIZE

Fifteen law students are competing for the 16 volumes of Encyclopedia of Law, given by the American Law Book company to the undergraduate getting the highest marks in answering nine especially prepared sets of legal questions. The winner will be announced at the end of the spring quarter. A second prize, the nature of which has not been announced, will also be given.

PLATO OUTCLASSED WHEN IT COMES TO WRITING EPIGRAMS

Confucius, Plato, and the other ancient worthies, had nothing on the budding Shaws and Chestertons on the campus for writing epigrams. Listen to this: "Two-Drink Thomas says: 'This would be a good University only for the professors.'" Two-Drink Thomas' next announcement reads, "Grass is known to have grown in a few spots in eastern Montana."

Two-Drink Thomas is the incarnation of those students on the campus who occasionally have a thought and think they have something funny to say. He posts his daily sayings on a bulletin board which adorns the front end of the "University hotel," otherwise known as Simpkins hall. Anybody having a bright idea can spread it broadcast for general enlightenment by writing it on this board.

Another brilliant outburst of a few days ago read thus: "If yellow slips were passed out every week I would have a room papered in delicate yellow squares by June." Another one sparked with an idea like this: "It took 20,000 years for nature to make a man out of a monkey, but it takes a woman only two minutes to reverse the process."

Inquiry as to the origin of the immortal name of Two-Drink Thomas revealed that he is a character of some poetic ability on the campus whom Bret Harte forgot to include in his story of "Luck of the Roaring Camp."

K. C's. Will Be Host to Catholic Students

Missoula council of the Knights of Columbus will be host to Catholic students of the University at a dance to be given tonight at Union hall. It was at first planned to have the dance at the St. Anthony parish house, but this plan was changed.

Tickets for the affair are complimentary and may be secured from Mary X. McCarthy, Marie Dion, Margaret Keough, Roger Deeny, William O'Neill and Charles Spiller. The Knights of Columbus are especially anxious to have every Catholic student attend the dance.

MAY DELAY PUBLICATION OF NEW COMIC MAGAZINE

Publication of the "Silver Tip," the new Grizzly comic magazine, will probably be delayed a short time, according to a statement made yesterday by the editors. The cuts which were to have been ready for the first issue, scheduled to appear March first, will not be finished in time for publication on that date.

The material now in hands of the editors will be carefully worked over and revised. All students who can turn in acceptable copy are urged to do so.
